Great progress by the RCMP in clearing and opening.

The arrests and weapons seizures changed the dynamic. The main site is largely clear with protestors leaving voluntarily. A few vehicles/tractors remain but there se are supposed to be out today. The checkpoint down the road still needs some work, and that this the focus today. And even there protestors are leaving on their own to dis-associate themselves from the armed conflict of the extremists arrested. Social media is showing handshakes with RCMP officers as they depart
GOA has tow trucks available for RCMP use if they need.

Lots of work on the investigation and organizing the charges for those arrested.

The POE is NOT open yet. Awaiting confirmation of when it opens, but it should be soon.
